MEDIA RELEASE

LINKING GENERATIONS EXPO

The Islamic Council of New South Wales (ICNSW) with support from the Department of Families, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs' (FaCSIA) is organising a Linking Generations Expo on 10 June 2007 which is part of the “Bringing Communities Together” strategic policy on social integration of Australian communities to support its ongoing commitment to ‘improving the lives of Australians’.

The Linking Generations Expo is designed to bring Australian communities together, in this instance by promoting awareness and understanding of the culture and values of Australian Muslims and sharing achievements and success stories on their social integration in the wider Australian community.

The Linking Generations Expo to be held on Sunday 10 June from 9am to 4pm at Campbelltown Arts Centre, Cnr Camden & Appin Roads, Campbelltown, is targeted for the Australian community to access information on services and facilities available from all levels of governments and the not-for-profit and community sectors.

It will provide an opportunity for businesses and organizations to showcase their services to a large and diverse audience.

To enquire about stalls or to become a sponsor please phone 9742 5752 or email to muslimexpo@icnsw.org.au

The Islamic Council of NSW looks forward to your involvement in making the Linking Generations Symposium & Expo a successful project.
